ANTHRACITE IS THE NEW BLACK

Our exciting new powder coated anthracite finish has been developed in line with the latest home interior colour trends. It's been carefully chosen to create a smart contemporary look that compliments current colour trends in frontals, cabinetry, appliances and accessories.

Our anthracite finish is smart enough to work with modern designs and versatile enough to improve more traditional looks. While the tough powder coating offers the practicability and resilience you'd expect from Kesseböhmer.

It's all part of our philosophy that kitchen storage should be both practical and attractive. Or as we like to say, beautiful on the inside.
